

At County Hall, Sir John Hunt --- leader of the successful Everest Expedition --- opened a Youth Service Exhibition called "Growing Up in London". The object of the Exhibition was to show what is being done, to promote the well-being of young Londoners during their hours of leisure. The activities included everything from boxing to arts and crafts.

ASSUAN DAM.

A group of foreign correspondents travelled ~~London~~ to the site of the Assuan Dam --- to see, as guests of the Department of Information, progress that is being made on one of the greatest engineering projects of all time. The cost of this vast undertaking is expected to be in the neighbourhood of four hundred million pounds ¹⁵

RETURN OF A SULTAN.

This was the return of the Sultan of Morocco from Paris, where he had been negotiating on the subject of Moroccan independence. A crowd of many thousands of Moslems, gave their Sultan a tumultuous welcome as he drove from the airport at Rabat to the Imperial Palace.