

PAT SMYTHE.

9/3/56.

Palace

J Sports
This was the last day of the International Jumping in the ~~Palace~~
~~the Sports~~ in Brussels, where the world's pick of equestrians gathered for the Brussels Grand Prix. Here is the Belgian rider Mlle. Schokaerts.

Fraulein Mertee of Germany had a good round spoiled by a fall.
And here is Britain's Pat Smythe riding Finesta --- a round in which they made one mistake.

This is Pat Smythe's most dangerous rival, Senor Goyaoga from Spain --- a former world champion.

And here is Pat Smythe's final round. She is riding Prince Hal --- the horse which is now almost as famous, as Foxhunter was in his heyday. This was a superb ~~xxx~~ exhibition of jumping and horsemanship. It confirms for Pat Smythe, her right to be called "the incomparable." In this magnificent round she went through like a machine.

A brilliant win for Britain's brilliant champion; a Grand Prix for wonderful Pat Smythe.
