

At Olympic Park, Melbourne --- one of the most fantastic races ever seen in ~~Melbourne~~ Australia --- or anywhere else. Ron Clarke fell at the feet of John Landy; and the holder of the world's record for the mile, stopped to help him. In doing so he lost at least five seconds. But he went on to cut down the forty-yard lead gained by the rest of the field --- and overtook them; and won the race.

Sport in Britain --- the Schools Amateur Boxing Association Championships, sponsored by the Star newspaper. J. Graham of Lancashire beat P. Dodd of London at five stone ten and under. And among the spectators was Mrs Bessie Braddock, M.P.

Here's one of the Senior contests --- at eleven stone two. Between P.J. Shevlane of London and R.F. Nicolson of Hampshire. This was a win for the Londoner. The programme raised a thousand pounds to be devoted to schoolboy boxing.

And now for rugby. England v Scotland at Murrayfield --- to decide the destination of the Calcutta Cup. Here comes a try for England --- part of their total of eleven points.

Scotland had replied with a penalty goal, but the England fifteen managed to keep the Cup with a win by eleven points to six -- despite this final Scottish try.
