

Members of the Delegation of the American Council of Christian Churches paid a visit to the Russian Orthodox Church in Moscow, and attended Divine Service after ~~being~~ ^{being} received by the Patriarch of Moscow and All Russia.

Afterwards, at a reception, the Patriarch made a presentation of Crificifexes, to commemorate the occasion.

ISMAILIA.

Continuing the story of the evacuation of British troops from the Canal Zone e-- the Egyptian flag was hoisted ceremoniously at this former British camp in Ismailia.

The ceremony was concluded with a parade of ^{the} troops of the army of Egypt.

PRISONERS.

On the border of Israel and Syria --- a now-familiar scene of this twentieth century. Exchange of Prisoners. In the presence of Israeli and Syrian and United Nations officials --- a hand-over of a mixture of soldiers and civilians. --- ~~and a hand-over.~~

U.S.A.A.F. UNIFORMS.

Now that travel to another ~~planet~~ ^{planet} doesn't seem to be too far off --- America has designed a new pressure-suit for its airmen; so that if ever they get to Mars, they'll look like men from Mars. They take off in a B - 52 with a new kind of undercarriage of four rotating sets of double wheels; if you want to know why --- ask Junior.

STOCK CAR RACING.

The craze for Stock Car Racing has spread to France. At Montreuil, in the suburbs of Paris, twenty thousand spectators watched the opening show.

Competitors in this race-meeting included people of all kinds --- business men, ex-boxing champions and an ex-champion cyclist. Next meeting they're going to include someone who can drive a car.