

10/4/56.

Miss Mary McCorquodale was the charming bride at one of the first of the spring weddings of London's society. At the fashionable church of St Margaret's, Westminster, she was married to Captain Fergus Bowes-Lyon of the Scots Guards. And, in addition to a guard of honour from the bridegroom's regiment, there was an imposing retinue of bridesmaids and pages.

Her Majesty the Queen, the Queen Mother, Princess Margaret and the Princess Royal were among the guests. For the bridegroom is the son of ~~Sakzuk~~ the late Colonel Bowes-Lyon, a brother of the Queen Mother.

GERMAN WEDDING.

And in our news shipment from Germany is this wedding in the Friedrich-Wilhelm Church in Berlin. Bride and bridegroom and relatives were wearing the picturesque costume of their native Silesia.

Kelly
GRACE/WEDDING. JEWELS.

And here is the latest piece of information about that other wedding. This magnificent jewellery set --- in rubies and diamonds --- is the gift of the Government and National Council of Monaco --- for Grace Kelly when she becomes the Princess. It contains eight hundred diamonds and seventy rubies.
