

Our cameras among a crowd of eighty thousand at Wembley Stadium picked out the high spots of the Rugby League Cup Final between Halifax and St Helens. St Helens are the team with the single ring on their jerseys. Here's the first try, for St Helens, after a first half with no score.

And Rhodes converted.

~~St Helens are the team with the single ring on their jerseys.~~

And here's a later stage in the game when the Lancashire side are leading by ten points to two and score their final try.

The kick just failed.

But St Helens received the Cup from Lord Alexander --- as Rugby League winners in 1956.

And now for cricket --- come to Arundel Castle in Sussex to watch the opening game of the season for our Test visitors from Australia. Here they are --- meeting strong opposition in the Duke of Norfolk's annual match for sporting charities.

The Duke's team included three former England captains and this is Ray Lindwall, bowling to Len Hutton.

No wonder they had this special accommodation for Pressmen to send their stories out across the world.

Here's Benaud --- to Cowdrey.....and he eventually bowled him for seven.

At the lunch interval, Hutton and Sheppard were asking Denis Compton about that knee.

Alec Bedser gave them a taste of the old medicine when the Aussies were batting --- but ^{for once} he couldn't get Lindsay Hassett and Arthur Morris. The Australians won by three wickets.
