

Lying at anchor off the island of Majorca is the honeymoon yacht of the world's most famous newlyweds.....the Deo Juvante II,, from which Prince Rainier and Princess Grace of Monaco came ashore to be welcomed by the President of the Nautical Club.

After greetings, they went for a walk round the island, to a place where, it is said, the Prince plans to build a house.

In the evening, ~~at the Nautical Club~~, the bride and bridegroom from Monaco were entertained with folk-dancing.....which looked rather like the dance of the wedding photographers.

to them