

In England,

The Londoner doesn't have to go far from the big city to get the smell of the sea. There's a real nautical atmosphere, at Willesden Holiday Regatta. And that's on the "Welsh Harp" at Neasden, ^{Not far from the River to Seaport} (within a bicycle ride of Piccadilly.) Needless to say, it's the experts who put up the best performance, but to sail in a regatta there are only two things you really need to know; how to get the water out of the boat ~~and~~ how to get the boat out of the water.

One of the most exciting sections in an all-embracing programme, was the racing of the hydroplanes.

o Arranged by the British Outboard Racing Club, these events attracted competitors from all over Britain, and also from the Continent.

Geoff Duke was at Aintree. And that means we've taken you ^{to the} ^{of England} up north to see the return of the world champion after a period of suspension.

Geoff Duke is No. 25 --- and he's in front. Showing that his absence from big motor cycle meetings, has not taken the shine out of this particular star.

In the familiar phrase --- Geoff Duke is the winner; and he receives his awards from Mrs Topham --- as winner of the 90-Mile and the Senior.

Mike Hawthorn was at Goodwood; and he was to have a mighty struggle with comparatively-unknown Colin Chapman. Here's the start of the Sports Car Race, for non-supercharged 1500 c.c.

This developed into a duel between Hawthorn and Chapman, both driving "Lotus Climaxes". Hawthorn was No. 24 --- Chapman was No. 28.

Colin Chapman was the winner; ^{they} and though on the way ^{their} ^{had a little "bualas bar,"} duel had included a touche ^{↑} there were no hard feelings and no bones broken.

At the White City, London --- the British Games sponsored by the News of the World. And in a meeting with much foreign competition, here's a win for Britain's, K. Box in the 100 metres, Race. B.

Eight Hundred Metres. Another international event and another case of a dual. Britain's Brian Hewson and the Belgian Record-holder Roger Moens, and here it's Hewson leading ~~had been snatching the lead --- and~~

Now Moens takes over front place; --- and despite a tremendous effort from Hewson --- it's a win for Belgium.

Three Thousand Metres --- and here is Gordon Pirie facing an onslaught from Hungary and Jugoslavia. Soon after the start Pirie's shoe came off. ~~But~~ For a time he continued barefoot but he had to give up; and it was the Hungarian Iharosf who came home the 1 winner.

Fifteen Hundred Metres.

Gordon Pirie leading the field with ~~a third of the race to go~~hotly pursued by two Hungarians, Raxant Raxsavolgyi and Tabori. Up from the back comes Ken Wood like lightning, to take over the lead. And it's Wood who holds off a desperate challenge to win by yards.
