

JEWISH TRICENTENARY.

1/6/56.

At the Guildhall in London, a dinner to mark the three ~~hundred~~ hundredth ~~anniversary~~ anniversary of the re-settlement of the Jewish Community in Britain was attended by the Duke of Edinburgh, Lord Samuel, the Lord Mayor of London and Sir Anthony and Lady Eden. The Duke proposed the toast of "The Anglo-Jewish Community."

Concluding his speech, Prince Philip paid a sincere tribute to Jewish ex-Servicemen.
