

TITO IN MOSCOW.

12/6/56.

During his visit to Moscow, Marshal Tito, ~~was~~ President of Yugoslavia, went to see the Russian Industrial Exhibition; accompanied by several of the leaders of the Soviet Government.

At the same time, a delegation from the British coalmining industry was being shown over a Russian colliery in the Rostov area of the River Don. They went down the pit and watched the Russian miners using mechanical cutters.

BURMA REUNION.

At the Albert Hall in London --- old comrades of the war in Burma met for their tenth reunion. A message was read from the Queen --- ~~and then followed~~ and then followed the parade of banners that brought back memories of a campaign that made military history.

ARROMANCHES.

And on this beach at Arr^{on}anches, in France --- wreaths were laid on the memorials to those who fell in the landing of the Allied troops in June 1944.

Mr Duncan Sandys, son-in-law of Mr Sir Winston Churchill, was present at the unveiling of a memorial plaque in the Museum --- where he inspected models of equipment used in the invasion.
