

At the Church of Holy Trinity in London there were some charming attendants at the wedding of two young people of debutante-type society. Miss Jane Sheffield was to be the bride of Mr Jocelyn Stevens. She wore a wedding gown that had been designed for Grace Kelly at a cost of £300 --- and when she came out of the church, there was a frantic rush for the honour of treading on it.

TRIPLETS CONVENTION.

At Palisades Park, New Jersey --- they hold an annual convention for triplets; and here are some of the representatives of those dear little troubles who come, as Shakespeare said, not single spies but in battalions.

To-day, all funfair rides were free; so if you think these kids have happy faces --- you ought to see father's!

WOMEN'S JUDO.

At ~~the~~ the March Air Force base in U.S.A., these Defence Department films show how Judo has been introduced into the training schedule for W.A.F.s. Not only for training; it's also becoming a popular form of sport. At the same time, there seems to be a falling-off in other forms of sport; as the ladies learn how to ~~land~~ make a one-point landing on the Department of Defence.
