

(7). TITLE.:- PAINTING THE PRESIDENT.

Picture. :- The President makes a fine subject for the artist --

--and, hello, so does the artist himself ! It's a great idea of Professor Fischer's --

--to paint a picture of himself painting von Hindenburg. A novel --

--notion which is certain to catch on with people who can afford it.

The job's nearly finished. It will, assuredly, cause a sensation when publicly exhibited in Berlin.

The President's alsatian is also in the picture, but he's not such a good sitter as his master.
